

Hagerty Confirms Support To FBHVC's Drive It Day 2010

20 Jan 10

Hagerty International, classic car insurance specialists, are hosting a classic car run at Silverstone for Drive It Day, the Federation of British Historic Vehicle Club's annual classic car day, on 25 April 2010 which is free to enter and has included a scenic tour, raffle and laps around the Silverstone Circuit in previous years. So far entries include a rare 1959 Alfa Giulietta SS Low Nose, 1958 Porsche 356a Austrian Police car and a 1901 US Long Distance to name but a few! Entry details can be obtained from their office, but places are limited.

About Hagerty:

- Founded in the USA in 1983, initially to provide speciality insurance to classic boat enthusiasts, parent company Hagerty Insurance launched its service for car collectors in 1991, and is now the largest classic and collector car insurance specialist in the USA and beyond.
- UK-based subsidiary, Hagerty International, was established in 2006 to cater for the parallel market sector in the UK and Europe, and now offers a bespoke portfolio of insurance products, underwritten by Allianz.
- Hagerty has built a robust and buoyant reputation for matching its clients' passion for classic vehicles, underlined in their belief that classic and collector cars are 'fun cars that you own because you desire them, not because you need them'.
